A Message from Our Principal

Dear South Port Melbourne Primary School families,

What an extraordinary Term 1 it has been! From vibrant Harmony Day celebrations to outstanding performances at our Swimming Carnival, our students have shown incredible resilience and community spirit.

Thank you to our staff, families, and volunteers whose dedication makes South Port Melbourne PS such a special place. A reminder that Friday 3 April is the last day of term — dismissal at the standard time of 3:30 pm. Term 2 commences Tuesday 22 April 2026.

Warm regards — Ms Amanda Forsythe, Principal

School News

Swimming Carnival Results

Congratulations to Yarra House on taking out the 2026 Swimming Carnival shield! Year 6 student Oliver Nguyen broke the school record in the 50m freestyle. Thanks to all families who came along on Tuesday 17 March.

Harmony Day

Our Harmony Day on Friday 20 March was a wonderful celebration of cultural diversity. Students wore orange, shared traditional foods, and joined in cultural storytelling activities.

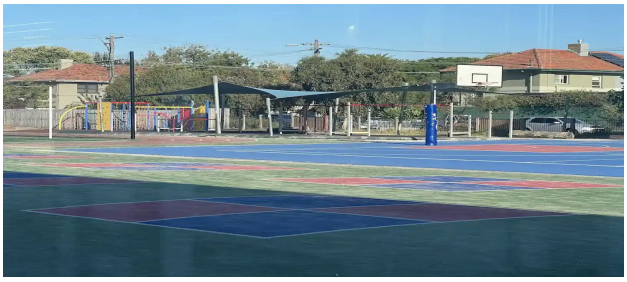
Year 3/4 Excursion — Melbourne Museum

Year 3 and 4 students explored the Dinosaur Walk and Children's Gallery on Wednesday 25 March as part of their Inquiry unit on ancient life. Thank you to our parent volunteers on the day.

Prep Buddy Reading Program

Prep students are paired with Year 5 buddies for weekly reading every Tuesday morning — the connections between our youngest and oldest students have been truly wonderful to witness.

Our beautiful heritage building on Beacon Street.



Our courts and playground — junior equipment upgrade commences 7 April.
